CONNER & WINTERS WELCOMES TWO NEW ATTORNEYS

TULSA, Okla. – (October 4, 2011) Conner & Winters, LLP is proud to announce the addition of two new attorneys. Chris M. Warzecha is a new associate in the Tulsa office, and Caleb N. McCoy has joined the firm's Oklahoma City office as an associate.

Mr. Warzecha, who recently earned his Juris Doctor with honors from the University of Arkansas School of Law, will practice in the areas of civil and commercial litigation. While in law school, he was recognized as the Top Oralist and co-author of the Best Brief in the 2010 Benjamin J. Altheimer Moot Court Competition. Mr. Warzecha was also a Pearson Fellow and served as Note and Comment Editor for the Arkansas Law Review.

Mr. McCoy recently earned his Juris Doctor with honors from the University of Oklahoma College of Law. His practice will concentrate on commercial and civil litigation. Among his recognitions and honors in law school, Mr. McCoy won the Luther Bohanon Inn of Court writing competition for his paper titled "In Defense of the Moral Man: The Impossible Task of Distinguishing Religion from Morality in the First Amendment."
